

Office of Thrift Supervision

Department of the Treasury

Deputy Director, Examinations, Supervision, and Consumer Protection

1700 G Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20552 • (202) 906-5666

Timothy T. Ward

Timothy T. Ward was appointed Deputy Director, Examinations, Supervision, and Consumer Protection for the Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) in April 2007. Prior to that, he had served in a dual capacity as the OTS's Chief Financial Officer and Chief Information Officer since January 2002. Timothy's new responsibilities will include overseeing examinations, supervision, consumer affairs and protection, policy, trust activities, holding company and conglomerate supervision, economic analysis and research, applications, information technology risk, monitoring, and international affairs for OTS.

Timothy began a long career in public service when he joined the staff of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta in 1983. With the passage of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989, Timothy was transferred to the OTS. He moved to OTS headquarters in Washington, DC in 1998 to coordinate the regional information systems functions, and he became Chief Information Officer in September 2000.

Timothy has a wide range of experience in savings association regulation including: examination, supervision, financial analysis, policy development, capital markets, interest rate risk management, information systems management, software development and training, applied financial research, strategic planning, and financial operations management. He graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration/Finance from Auburn University in December 1982.

The Office of Thrift Supervision, an office of the Department of the Treasury, regulates and supervises the nation's thrift industry. OTS's mission is to ensure the safety and soundness of, and compliance with consumer protection laws by, thrift institutions, and to support their role as home mortgage lenders and providers of other community credit and financial services. OTS also oversees the activities and operations of thrift holding companies that own or control thrift institutions. Copies of OTS news releases and other documents are available at the OTS web page at www.ots.treas.gov.